

A Big Hello!

I'm a Journalist, Independent Blogger, a Spa Therapist, and a Travel Consultant. I have worked with prestigious spa and skincare brands and luxury lifestyle magazines. I am extremely passionate about luxury travel, wellness, style and the rejuvenating powers of holistic travel.

I love to collaborate my work with my passion to travel the globe and promote scenic destinations, luxurious hotels and spa/beauty brands. My overall goal is to inspire women to get out & experience the blessings and beauty of the world, whilst enabling them to live as the best possible versions of themselves.
